The Kate Svitek Memorial Foundation was established in Spring, 2002 shortly after Kate died on Mt. Bachelor in a snowboard accident. The Foundation's mission is to provide financial support to individuals, groups, and various institutions whose interests and goals align with Kate's hopes and dreams. The primary focus is to promote and underwrite a range of activities and education principally related to outdoor and wilderness exploration, study, observation, preservation, improvement, expansion, and enhancement.

Since its inception, the Foundation has been able to provide:

- Annual scholarships to students at UVM to be used for summer internships
- 21 scholarships to NOLS
- 103 scholarships to NCOB
- Yearly grants to Wissahickon Charter School's 8th grade 5-day Outward Bound trip

Grants to:

- Robbins Park (Ambler, PA)
- Schuylkill Nature Center (Philadelphia, PA)
- Riverbend Environmental Education Center (Gladwyne, PA)
- Parkway School (Philadelphia, PA)
- ReSource (Bend, OR)
- Green Valleys Association (Pottstown, PA)
- College Settlement Camp (Horsham, PA)
- Venture Outdoors (Pittsburgh, PA)
- Camp Attaway Columbia, MD)
- New Jersey Academy for Aquatic Sciences (Camden, NJ)
- New Heights Charter School (New York, NY)
- Urban Blazers (Philadelphia, PA)
- Bikeworks (Philadelphia, PA)
- Sauvie Island Center (Portland, OR)
- Pennsylvania Horticultural Society - YES (Philadelphia, PA)
- Boys & Girls Clubs of Philadelphia
- no Barriers (Fort Collins, CO)
- Paddle Without Pollution (Pittsburgh, PA)
- Camp Thunderbird (Rosebud Indian Reservation, SD)
- I-Lead Charter (Reading, PA)
- Russell Byers Charter School (Philadelphia, PA)

It is the successful combination of your ongoing financial support, coupled with the tireless effort of volunteers, that allows the Foundation to execute its mission of fulfilling Kate's dreams.

*Please join us as we continue
"Workin' on Our Dream" "on the boardwalk way past dark."*

Saturday June 27, 2015

7:00 PM

Here to Stay Farm

1501 N. Beecham Road, Ambler PA

Dinner and Dancing with the B Street Band!
~ the #1 Bruce Springsteen tribute band ~

To benefit the Kate Svitek Memorial Foundation

*"Put your makeup on and fix your hair up pretty" cause
"We know a place where the dancin's free."
We're here to "talk about Kate's dream,
and try to make it real" along the way.
"We'll keep pushin' til it's understood" ...
"You gotta live it everyday."
So "As we dance like Spirits in the Night," we'll have a lot of fun
"cause baby we were all Born to Run."*

The B Street band will pay tribute to The Boss, as we pay tribute to Kate
